

Photo Routine Chart

Age: Preschool-age (3-4 years)

This activity helps your child's development in this domain: Language and Literacy, Cognitive

What You Need:

- Sheet of construction paper or card stock
- Colored construction paper
- Tape
- Camera or smart phone

What To Do:

1. Take photos of your child doing her daily routine. For example: reading a book, brushing her teeth, using the bathroom, saying good night to the family, etc.
2. Print your photos and have your child place the photos in the order of her routine and tape them onto the paper. Talk about the various things your child does.
3. With colored paper or construction paper, cut out check marks and place tape behind the check marks.
4. As your child completes a part of her routine, she can use a check mark to show that it is done for the day.
